INJURY BY POSITION

TALE OF THE TITLE RACE

JACK'S BACK

Jack Wilshere
Midfielder
Bournemouth

Started more Premier League games [22] in 2016/17 than he had done in the previous three seasons combined [10].

Played most Premier League minutes [1912] since becoming a first-team regular at Arsenal in 2010/11 [2653].

Prior to fracturing his fibula in the north London derby, Wilshere had not missed a single league game because of injury.

KOMPANY RETURN

Vincent Kompany
Defender
Manchester City

By the end of 2015/16 no player had suffered more injuries, since January 2012, than Kompany [30].

But, after a slow start to the season, the Man City captain finished the campaign strongly starting in his clubs last 8 games.

Kompany has suffered [38] injuries since joining the Citizens. More than a third [37%] are attributed to his calf.
